Advice to Contributors
The editors welcome contributions in the form of articles, letters, reports and reviews.

Authors should prepare manuscripts according to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (3rd ed.). Manuscripts for articles and reports must include an abstract of 100-150 words.

All manuscripts must be typewritten, double spaced; on one side of numbered pages. Figures, tables and graphics should be provided in camera ready form. Photographs should preferably be in black and white.

Authors should provide a brief biographical statement indicating their affiliation and professional activities.

All material in this publication is copyright unless otherwise stated in writing, and may not be reproduced in any form without permission of the Editors. Permission will normally be granted where material is to be used for non-profit educational purposes.

Opinions expressed by contributors or correspondents do not necessarily reflect or represent the view of the Editors or of the Australian Council for Computers in Education.

The Australian Council for Computers in Education does not endorse products or services advertised in Australian Educational Computing.
