Australian Educational Computing

Australian
Educational Computing

Journal of the Australian Council for Computers in Education

Volume 7, No 2 September, 1992

CONTENTS

Editorial.................................................................................................................. 2
President's report.................................................................................................... 4
The left-handed computer – alternative images of classroom computing
Carolyn Dowling.................................................................................................. 6
It is more than just seeing – on multimedia and visual thinking
Jann Neilson........................................................................................................ 9
Multimedia – establishing new paradigms or reaffirming old skills
Andrew Gray....................................................................................................... 13
Devising the device: microcomputer input decisions for young children
Dr John King and Dr Nola Alloway................................................................. 18

FROM THE CLASSROOM

Computer imaging for all students: Implications for whole brain learning
Julie Peachey and Dorothy Muller..................................................................... 22
An investigation of the effects of computer instructional games on student learning
Lupe M. T. Gates and Renato A. Schibeci...................................................... 27
Right brain thinkers attack computers
Michaela Moate.................................................................................................. 32
Not 'just' art: computer paint programs and ideas processing
Phillip Mellifont.................................................................................................. 33
Computers in the art room
Wendy Harris..................................................................................................... 35
So is it just social studies?
Geoff Romeo..................................................................................................... 36

Call for articles
Readers are invited to contribute articles for future editions of this journal.
Articles should be no longer than 4000 words and include an abstract of 100-150 words. Contributors are asked to provide a brief autobiographical statement.

Deadlines: Friday 12 March for May 1993 and Friday 16 July for September 1993

Have your say.
Why not share your interest and concerns about educational computing by writing a letter to the editor of Australian Educational Computing.

Address all correspondence to:
The Editor
Australian Educational Computing
ACCE
PO Box 1255
Belconnen ACT 2616